Materials:

- US 11 (8mm) needles
- Yarn Bee Velvety Smooth (or another velvet type yarn)
- Lion Brand Wool Ease (or any worsted weight yarn)

Instructions:

With the velvet yarn, cast on 21 sts, using your preferred cast on method.

Row 1: knit.

Row 2: k1, *p1, k1, repeat from *.

Attach worsted yarn.

(working with worsted yarn):

Row 3: holding both the worsted yarn and the velvet yarn, knit the first stitch. Drop the velvet yarn, and knit to the end, using only the worsted yarn.

Row 4: k1, p1, repeat until 2 stitches remain (one stitch is worsted yarn, one is velvet.) Knit the two stitches together. You should still have 21 stitches.

Row 5: repeat row 3.

(working with velvet yarn):

Row 7: holding both the worsted yarn and the velvet yarn, knit the first stitch. Drop the worsted yarn, and knit to the end, using only the velvet yarn.

Row 8: repeat row 4.

Repeat rows 3-8 until you've reached your desired length of scarf. Bind off using your preferred method.

(Same pattern, explained another way, in case it makes more sense this way!):

Essentially, this scarf is made of the same two rows...just alternating yarns.

First row: knit

Second row: 1 x 1 rib stitch

Work with the velvet yarn for two rows, then switch to the worsted for four rows, then repeat until desired length.

When I work the first stitch of the knitted/odd rows, I always pick up both yarns, then make sure to knit that stitch together when I come back to it on the rib/even row...but you don't have to do that if you'd rather carry your yarn another way.

Also, you can always change the ratio of worsted to velvet rows if you want. This is just how I made my scarf.
